Dear Dr. Brett Fleisch:

Thank you for your correspondence to the Office of the Attorney General.

While we appreciate the time and effort it has taken to contact our office, we are unable to assist you because the Attorney General has no jurisdiction in matters already before the court or in matters where the courts have already rendered a decision. In addition, we are prohibited by law from representing private individuals or providing legal advice, legal research or legal analysis to private individuals under any circumstances.

Therefore, we suggest that you consult with a private attorney to determine any civil remedies that may be available to you. An attorney would directly represent your interests and is the one whose advice would be most helpful to you.

As you know, your complaint about the judge involved in this case should be directed to the Commission on Judicial Performance. The Commission has exclusive jurisdiction over complaints against judges. We suggest that you continue to work with this Commission, and you may contact that as follows:

Commission on Judicial Performance
455 Golden Gate Avenue, Suite 14400
San Francisco, CA 94102
Telephone: (415) 557-1200
Fax: (415) 557-1266
Internet: <http://cjp.ca.gov>

We regret that we are unable to assist you. However, we hope the information we have provided clarifies our restrictions in regard to your request. Thank you again for writing.

Sincerely,
