Homage Material (pre-Robinson)	Testimonials (Robinson)	Administrative Document(Funder)
States they need a protection order because Fleisch resigned		Email exhibit shows L. Bhuyan downloads resignation and issues “Goodbye Charlie” email
Laxmi Bhuyan – blank page Jackie Li – “broken fire alarm” Tom Payne – “preoccupied” Amy Ricks – a,b,c,d, “but that didnt happen”		Exhibits out of sequence doc used to resign with a past date

Ricks – different from homage, Robinson took this testimony she may have conducted harassment and blamed me. Mostly described routine matters she found terribly challenging issues for a secretary but were routine matters. Picked out juicy stuff from the gossip between her and another to cast on me. Describes a campaign called “operation pivot”. Frivolous with a hidden agenda. Blaming me hides employment causes by freezing my file using a zero tolerance policy that she blames me for.

Li – topic change(fire alarm), claims to download resignation and hand it to Laxmi Bhuyan. This contradicts administrative document. More reactions to events from a phone call June 6th. Fright from Amy Rick's hysteria built up or a phone call. Frivolous.

Payne – topic change(preoccupied), “men on the roof”, frivolous Bhuyan- topic change(blank page for space reclamation)– reaction to something he was told on events that had no incident that occurred. Possible Reaction from harassment events Amy blamed on me.

Chief of Police added “made to understand” I was being fired. This is contradictory with homage document where lawyers said they needed an order because I resigned. In reality, a secretary made a mistake and there is a cover-up.

n.b. “made to understand” stylized phrase suggests unrelated witnesses were coached

Notice the tone of the documents changed from the homage document used to secure the TPO and ones to secure longer “orders”. In the homage, each is an independent anecdote. In the latter, Robinson attempts to secure testimony derivative from Ricks hysteria and operation “pivot”. Civil matters are not investigated despite fraud (a crime) unless complained about by others.
